TechReturners

WE ARE PEOPLE | WE ARE TECHNOLOGY | WE ARE OPPORTUNITY

WE ARE TECH RETURNERS

Tech Returners is an inclusive accessible and positive learning and coaching community empowering careers into and through technology with a range of programmes, resources and development tools. The organisation is committed to removing the barriers which returners face after a career break and to tackle the skills shortage in technology by empowering people into technology careers and providing continuous support on their journeys through technology and into leadership.

Since 2017 we've enabled more than 29 returners into careers in technology and have grown a community of more than 100 returners as a result of our programme Your Journey Into Tech, there are currently more than 40 returners taking part in our programmes and we're not stopping there; our programmes are growing and so is our team, having already tripled in size since 2018 we're now looking for an Engagement Executive to identify, engage and develop relationships with businesses across the North West and beyond. who are committed to investing in returner talent, addressing diversity and accessibility and who are willing to think differently about the tech skills challenge.

Having just been awarded funding from the GMCA Digital Skills Fund to further develop our programmes and initiatives, this is a great opportunity to join a unique business which creates truly life-changing opportunities at a time of significant growth.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Working alongside our Talent and Engagement Coach and CEO, you'll identify businesses which are experiencing the digital skills gap, which have Diversity and Inclusion as core strategic goals and who are open to new ways of engaging with future tech talent. You'll develop relationships with the right people in these businesses with the ultimate aim of demonstrating how partnering with Tech Returners can support them in meeting their talent needs and aspirations.

You'll attend industry events, including MeetUps, Breakfast Seminars and Conferences whilst making researching the technology industry and immersing yourself in the UK Tech scene as a key part of your role to generate engagement opportunities. You'll build relationships with target businesses alongside our Talent and Engagement Coach to showcase the successes of our programmes and actively demonstrate the impact our work has on our returners and the businesses which support them.

ABOUT YOU

Working in a fast-paced environment you'll need to be driven, focused, conscientious, commercially astute, a great communicator and above all passionate about the work you do, and whilst you'll be working as part of a supportive team you'll also have the flexibility and autonomy to deliver your role and results in a way that works best for you, this isn't your typical 9-5 career.

Location: Manchester City Centre

Holiday: 24 days + Bank Holidays

Pension:

Hours – 37.5 hours per week with flexibility around start and finish times*

* Due to the nature of this role you will be expected to attend at least 2 events per week, additionally, you may be required to attend Tech Returners events and key parts of programme delivery. Whilst you will not be remunerated for events which take place outside of 'core hours' we do operate a fully flexible working environment which will allow reasonable adjustments to be made to your work pattern to accommodate these events.
